South Carolina State Postings

SOUTH CAROLINA

Safety and Health Protection on the Job

THE STATE: Under the South Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Act, the state is responsible for the enforcement of occupational safety and health standards in all workplaces, both public and private, within South Carolina Horever, longshoring, shipbuilding, ship repairing and shipbreaking operations covered by the Longshoremen and Harbor Workers Compensation Act, as amended, mena's under federal jurisdiction.

EMPLOYERS: Each employer shall furnish to employees employment and a place of employment which are free fror recognized hazards that are causing, or likely to cause, death or physical harm to his employees, and shall comply with coupling the production of the prod

EMPLOYEES: Each employee shall comply with occupational safety and health standards and all rules, regulations and orders issued by the director of Labor, Licensing and Regulation which are applicable to his own actions and Any employee or representative may request an inspection of place or site of employment. Any employee may file a complaint, either verbally or in writing. Complaint forms and filing information may be lound on our website or will be provided, upon request, by the South Cardina Department of Labor, Lorening and Regulation. Employers and employees have the right to participate in inspections by means of bringing to the attention of the inspecting officer peaclet voldations with che sint in their area of work and the right to participate in the well-and inspection. The inspecting officer shall have the right to determine the number of persons participating in the walken inspection.

Under state law, when the authorized representative of the employees accompanies the inspecting officer during a walk-around inspection, he shall not suffer any loss of wages or other benefits which would normally accrue to him. Where there is no authorized representative, the inspecting officer will consult with a reasonable number of employe concerning matters of safety and health in the workplace.

DISCRIMINATION: State and selectal laws prohibit discrimination against any employee if he files a complaint or causes any proceeding under or related to this Act or is about to teetify in any such proceedings or because of the exercise by any employee on behalf of himself or others of any right afforded under state and federal law. The director of Labor, Licensing and Regulation or the nearest federal OSHA effices must be notified within thirty (30) days after such discriminatory act occurs. State and local government employees should file such complaints with the director of SC Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation. A public sector employee believing that he has been discharged or otherwise discriminated against by any person in violation of Section 41-15-510 may proceed with a civil action pursuant to the provisions contained in Chapter 27, Title 8.

CITATIONS: Citations listing the alleged violations during an inspection will be mailed to the employer with re promptress. State law requires euch catations be promptly posted at appropriate places for employee information three days, or until the violations are corrected, whichever is later, to warn employees of dangers that may exist

PENALTIES: An employer may be assessed a penalty up to $7,000 dollars for a non-serious violation

Any employer who willfully violates an occupational safety and health rule or regulation may be assessed a penalty not more than $70,000 for each violation.

Any employer who wilfully violates an occupational safety and health rule or regulation and the violation causes death to an employee shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, be punished by fine, imprisonment or both.

For more information, contact: South Carolina Department of Labor, Liconaing and Regulation Office of OSHA Complians, SC 29211-1329 808-899-7685, http://www.scoatha.iconiae.com/

YOUR RIGHTS AS A WORKER IN SOUTH CAROLINA

In the lap beach place, you want to a state of scalar choices it state to be because of macribeniship or non-membership in a labor union or labor organization. Certain actions by empleyers, labor organizations, and individuals are uniestful, herularing: (1) Agreements or contracts which require membership in a labor organization in order to be hirded or confitue to work; (2) Requirement by an employer that an employee become or remain a member of a labor organization, obtain or remain a member of a labor organization, or pay fees or greater than the confituence of the confitue such an agreement is unentroceasio.

An employer has the right to doctact from the wages of employees and to pay to a labor organization, or its authorized representative, membratishing dues in a labor organization, however, the employer must have neceived from each employee written authorization which mast not be irrescratise for a period of more than one year or until the termination due of any applicable collecture agreement or authorization, whichever occurs scorer. After one year, the employee has the right to revoke the written authorization allowing for deduction of membership dues in a labor union.

allowing for deduction of membership dues in a labor union. It is unlared to a person or persons to use force, intrinsidation, violence, threats or violenthisating language against a person or property, or any member of the tamby of any person, to insidere, or alternot to interfere, with the person in the exercise of the light to work, to pursue or engage in any lawful violenthis or business activity, to enter lame his place of employment, or to receive, this or deliver materials, goods or services ent prohibited by law, or compol or alternot to correlar any person of the property of relativity of the property of relativ

Constitution of the United States.

An employer, abort organization, or other person who talls to comply is guilty of a misdemeator, and, upon conviction, must be pursished by imprisonment for not less than tendes nor more than the Proceedings of the Control of the State Author of the

For more information, go to South Carolina Code of Laws 41-7-10 of seq.

SOUTH CAROLINA HUMAN AFFAIRS LAW PROHIBITS
Labor, Licensing and Regulation

EMPLOYMENT DISCRIMINATION

der state law an employer may not discriminate against on the bases of: Ruce, Color, National Origin, Religion, Age -) or Disability, Sex (Including pregnency, childbirth, or niatod Scal conditions, accused crientation, or gender (skettly).

- Examples of fillegal Employment Practices spects of employment including. Fallants to life or precede Privy (Integal wages or companisation) or Benefits Fallants to precide reasonable accommodation due to:

How to report unlawful discrimination

Payment of Wages, Child Labor and Right-to-Work Laws

Payment of Wages Act

- the wages agreed upon the normal hours the employee will work the time and place wages will be paid
- the deductions an employer may make from wages, including insurance

Changes to these terms must be in writing at least seven (7) calendar days before they become effective. Employers must pay employees all wages due each pay period.

Employers must also give employees an itemized statement showing gross pay and all deductions made each pay period and maintain records of wages paid for three years.

to reages part or elect years.

Employers who violate the Psyment of Wages Act are subject to a civil penalty of $100 for each violation. Employees can recover up to three times the full amount of unpaid wages, costs, and attorney's fees in a civil action.

To report a suspected violation, or for recordiseping or other questions involving the Payment of Wages Act, or to order a copy of the Payment of Wages Act, please contact the Office of Wages and Child Labor at the address and number Islad below.

No employer in this state shall engage in any oppressive child labor practices. Oppressive child labor includes employment of any minor in any occupation declared by the director of Labor. Lorenting and Regulation to be particularly hazardous or detiments to the health or well being of minors. Oppressive child bear also includes employment of minors who are 14 or 15 years of under the sticking conditions:

- Before 7 a.m. or after 7 p.m. (9 p.m. during the period of summer break of the school district in which the minor resides)
- More than 18 hours during school weeks More than 3 hours on school days
- More than 40 hours in non-school weeks

More than 40 hours in non-school weeks:
 More than 8 hours on non-school days
 For details involving child labor provisions, please contact the Office of Wages and Child Labor at:
 SC bepairmant of Labor, Leonising and Regulation
 Office of Wages and Child Labor
 PD Box 11329, Calambia, pc. 282(11-1329)
 Phores 060-696-470, assulfacritise.com

Right-to-Work

The right to work of a person in South Carolina cannot be deried, interfered with, or sbridged because the person belongs - or does not belong - to a labor union. An employe, labor organization, or other person who violates a worker in rights under these previains is guilty of a miniedemeanor, and, upon conviction, must be positived by impressment for not less than 100 also not more than 310,000, or both in addition, the employer, labor organization, or other person is subject to a lawsuit by this aggreewed worker. For more information call (2008) 388-4470.

The South Carolina Illegal Immigration and Reform Act requires all employers to verify the legal status of new employees and prohibits employment of any worker who is not legally in this country and authorized to work.

After July 1, 2009, all businesses in South Carolina are imputed a South Carolina employment license which permits an employer to hire employees. The imputed employment license remains in effect as long as the business abides by the law.

Effective Jenuary 1, 2012, all South Carolina employers are required to enroll in the U.S. Destinent of Homeland Seouthly's E-Verily program and weith the status of new employees within three business days, using E-Verily. Failure to use E-Verily to verily new hires will result in probabin for the employer or suspension-invocation of the employer's business locareas.

Workers' Compensation

Workers' Compensation Compliance Poster

South Carolina

We are operating under and subject to the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Act see of accidents' injury or death to an employee, the injured employee, or some acting in his or her behalf, must give immediate notice to the employer or an authorized agent. Failure to give autor immediate notice may be the cause rickue delay in the payment of compensation to the injured employee or his or spendents and may result in failure to receive any compensation benefits.

Workers' Compensation:

- If you are injured on the job, you should:
- Notify your employer at once. You cannot receive benefits unless your employer at once. You cannot receive benefits unless you employer stones you are injuried.
 Tell the doctor your employer sends you to that you are covered by we compensation.

Workers' Compensation Provider Name Mailing Address

Claims Telephone Number

February 20, 2014

Unemployment Insurance

This establishment may be covered by the S.C. Employment and Workforce Law. If you become unemployed, contact your local SC Works center for assistance with employment opportunities. If no job is immediately available, you may be eligible for unemployment insurance. If only part time work is evaluable, you may be eligible for partial benefits. Apply online arrytime, anywhere at https://icaarbub.dow.ec.gov/CSS/.

A guide to applying for unemployment benefits can be found at https://dow.sc.gov/individuals/apply-for-benefits Workers Pay No Part of the Cost for Unemployment Insurance

Often unemployed workers tell us that unemployment insurance is due them "because have paid for it." In South Carolina, employees do not fund unemployment insurance the leductions from pay. Employers fund unemployment insurance through tax contribution

Social Security Tax Don't confuse unemp Social Security Tax.

Den't confuse unemployment insurance with old age, survivors and disability insurance. The amount deducted from your wages as Social Security is your contribution to old-age, survivors and disability insurance. The employer contributes an equal amount, in addition to his payment of the full unemployment insurance tex.

If you have lost your job due to domestic violence, there is a possibility you may be eligible for unemployment insurance benefits.

For more information. contact:

 SC Dept. of Labor, Licensing and Regulations, 803-896-4380, www.llronline.com

SC Human Affairs Commission, 803-737-7800, 1-800-521-0725, www.schac.sc.gov

THIS NOTICE MUST BE POSTED CONSPICUOUSLY.

SOUTH CAROLINA

iHRSource

These files may not be printed out and posted to meet legal compliance posting requirements. Required posters to meet legal compliance posting requirements are physically posted at all CarMax locations.

ALLC 20230130

Compliance Date January 2023

