More information about the difference between EO 14026 and EO 13658 is available at www.dhs.gov/whd/government-contractors/14026/13658-by-side.

• Workers with disabilities whose wages are governed by special certificates issued under section 14(c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act must receive no less than the full minimum wage rate under EO 14026 for time spent performing work in connection with covered contracts.
• Some state or local laws may provide greater worker protections; employees must follow the law that requires the highest rate of pay.
• More information about the EO is available online at www.dhs.gov/whd/government-contractors/14026.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
The purpose of the discussion below is to advise contractors which are subject to the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act or the Service Contract Act of the principal provisions of these acts.

WALSH-HEALEY PUBLIC CONTRACTS ACT
General Provisions – This act applies to contracts which exceed or may exceed $10,000 entered into by any agency or instrumentality of the United States for the manufacture or furnishing of materials, supplies, articles, or equipment. The act establishes minimum wage, maximum hours, and safety and health standards for work on such contracts, and prohibits the employment on contract work of child laborers certain conditions are met and children under the age of 18.
• The employment of nonemployees (except subcontractors with disabilities under the provisions of regulations, 29 CFR Part 55) on or covered by the contract.
In addition to its coverage of private contractors, the act also covers circumstances applies to the contractor who performs work on contract under contracts awarded by the government prime contractor.
• All provisions of the act except the safety and health requirements are administered by the Wage and Hour Division.
Minimum Wage – Covered employees must currently be paid not less than the federal minimum wage established in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act.
Overtime – Covered workers must be paid at least one and one-half times their basic rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of 40 in a week. Overtime is due on the basis of the total hours spent in all work, Government and non-Government, performed by the employee in any week in which covered work is performed.
Child Labor – Employees may protest themselves against continued child labor violations by obtaining certification of age. State employment or age certificates are acceptable.
Safety and Health – No covered work may be performed in plants, factories, buildings, or surroundings or under work conditions that are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health and safety of the employees engaged in the performance of the contract. The safety and health provisions of the Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act are administered by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.
Paid – During the period that covered work is being performed for a contract subject to the act, the contractor must keep copies of Notice to Employees Working on Government Contracts in a sufficient number of places to permit employees to determine a copy on the way to or from their place of employment.
Responsibility for Secondary Contractors – Prime contractors are liable for violations of the act committed by their covered secondary contractors.

SERVICE CONTRACT ACT
General Provisions – The Service Contract Act applies to every contract entered into by the United States or the District of Columbia, the principal purpose of which is to furnish services in the United States through the use of service employees.
Contractors and subcontractors performing on such federal contracts must observe minimum wage and safety and health standards, and must maintain certain records, unless a specific exemption applies.
Wages and Fringe Benefits – Every service employee performing any of the Government contract work under a service contract in excess of $2,000 must be paid not less than the minimum wage, and must be furnished the fringe benefits, which the Secretary of Labor has determined to be prevailing in the locality for the occupation in which the employee is working or the safety and health provisions of the act, including any accrued or prospective fringe and fringe benefits (including any accrued or prospective fringe and fringe benefits) contained in a prevailing contract or in the collective bargaining agreement. The wage rates and fringe benefits required are usually specified in the contract but in no case may employees doing work necessary for the performance of the contract be paid less than the minimum wage established in section 6(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act.
Overtime – The act provides that no part of the services in contracts in excess of $2,000 may be performed in buildings or surroundings or under working conditions, except by or under the contract or agreement of the contractor or subcontractor, which are unsanitary or hazardous or dangerous to the health or safety of service employees engaged to furnish the service. The safety and health provisions of the Service Contract Act are administered by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.
Notice to Employees – In the data a service employee commences work on a contract in excess of $2,000, the contractor (or subcontractor) must provide the employee with a notice of the compensation required by the act. The posting of the notice (including any applicable wage determination) contained on the reverse in a location where it may be seen by all employees performing on the contract will satisfy this requirement.
Notice in Subcontracts – The contractor is required to insert in all subcontracts the labor standards clauses specified by the regulations in 29 CFR Part 4 for Federal Government contracts.
Responsibility for Secondary Contractors – Prime contractors are liable for violations of the act committed by their covered secondary contractors.

Other Obligations – Observance of the labor standards of these acts does not relieve the employer of any obligations he may have under any other laws or agreements providing for higher labor standards.
Additional Information – Additional information and copies of the acts and applicable regulations and interpretations may be obtained from the nearest office of the Wage and Hour Division or the national office in Washington, D.C. Information pertaining to safety and health standards may be obtained from the nearest office of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration or the national office in Washington, D.C.

EMPLOYEE RIGHTS UNDER THE FAIR LABOR STANDARDS ACT

FEDERAL MINIMUM WAGE

$7.25 PER HOUR BEGINNING JULY 24, 2009

The law requires employers to display this poster where employees can readily see it.

OVERTIME PAY
At least 1½ times the regular rate of pay for all hours worked over 40 in a workweek.

CHILD LABOR
An employee must be at least 16 years old to work in most non-farm jobs and at least 18 to work in non-farm jobs involving hazardous work in various non-manufacturing, non-mining, non-hazardous jobs with certain work hours restrictions. Different rules apply to agricultural employment.

TIP CREDIT
Employees of "tipped employees" who meet certain conditions may claim a tip credit against their minimum wage. Employees must pay tipped employees a cash wage of at least $2.13 per hour if they claim a tip credit against their minimum wage obligation. If an employer's tip combined with the employer's cash wage of at least $2.13 per hour do not equal the minimum hourly wage, the employer must make up the difference.

PUMP AT WORK
The FLSA requires employers to provide reasonable break time for a nursing employee to express breast milk for their nursing child for one year after the child's birth each time the employee needs to express breast milk. Employees must provide a place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from coworkers and the public, which may be used by the employee to express breast milk.

ENFORCEMENT
The Department has authority to recover back wages and an equal amount in liquidated damages in instances of minimum wages, overtime, and other violations. The Department may litigate and/or recover civil penalties. Employees may be assessed civil money penalties for each willful or repeated violation of the minimum wage or overtime pay provisions of the FLSA.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
• Certain occupations and establishments are exempt from the minimum wage, and/or overtime pay provisions. Certain narrow exemptions also apply to the points of work requirements.
• Special provisions apply to workers in American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

• Some state laws provide greater employee protections; employees must comply with both.
• Some employers incorrectly classify workers as "independent contractors" when they are actually employees under the FLSA. It is important to know the difference between the two because employees (unless exempt) are entitled to the FLSA's minimum wages and overtime pay protections and correctly classified independent contractors are not.
• Certain full-time students, student learners, apprentices, and workers with disabilities may be paid less than the minimum wage under special certificates issued by the Department of Labor.

Know Your Rights Under the Recovery Act!

Did you know?
The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 "provides protections for certain employees of non-federal employers who make specified disclosures relating to possible fraud, waste and/or abuse or Recovery Act funds."

Who is protected?
Employees of non-federal employers receiving recovery funds. This includes State and local governments, contractors, subcontractors, grantees or professional membership organizations acting in the interest of recovery fund recipients.

How are whistleblowers protected?
You cannot be discharged, demoted or otherwise discriminated against as a reprisal for making a protected disclosure.

What types of disclosures are protected?
The disclosure must be made by the employee to the Recovery Accountability and Transparency Board, an Inspector General, the Comptroller General, a member of Congress, a state or federal regulatory or law enforcement agency, a person with supervisory authority over the employee, a court or grand jury, or the head of a federal agency or higher representatives.

The disclosure must involve information that the employee believes is evidence of:
• gross management of an agency contract or grant relating to recovery funds;
• a gross waste of recovery funds;
• a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety related to the implementation or use of recovery funds;
• an abuse of authority related to the implementation or use of recovery funds; or
• a violation of law, rule, or regulation related to an agency contract or grant awarded or issued relating to recovery funds.

Take Action!
Log on to Recovery.gov for more information about your rights and details on how to report at www.recovery.gov.

Section 1552 of Division A, Title XVI of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009, PL 111-5

Under the NLRA, you have the right to:

- Organize a union to negotiate with your employer concerning your wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment.
- Form, join or assist a union.
- Bargain collectively through representatives of employees' own choosing for a contract with your employer setting your wages, benefits, hours, and other working conditions.
- Discuss your terms and conditions of employment or union organizing with your co-workers or a union.
- Take action with one or more co-workers to improve your working conditions by, among other means, raising workrelated complaints directly with your employer or with a government agency, and seeking help from a union.
- Strike and picket, depending on the purpose or means of the strike or the picketing.
- Choose not to do any of these activities, including joining or remaining a member of a union.

Illegal conduct will not be permitted. If you believe your rights or the rights of others have been violated, you should contact the NLRB promptly to protect your rights, generally within six months of the unlawful activity. You may inquire about possible violations without your employer or anyone else being informed of the inquiry. Charges may be filed by any person and need not be filed by the employee directly affected by the violation. The NLRB may order an employer to hire a worker fired in violation of the law and to pay lost wages and benefits, and may order an employer or union to cease violating the law. Employees should seek assistance from the nearest regional NLRB office, which can be found on the Agency's website: www.nlrb.gov.

Under the NLRA, it is illegal for a union or for the union that represents you in bargaining with your employer to:

- Threaten you that you will lose your job unless you support the union.
- Refuse to process a grievance because you have criticized union officials or because you are not a member of the union.
- Use or maintain discriminatory standards or procedures in making job referrals from a hiring hall.
- Cause or attempt to cause an employer to discriminate against you because of your union-related activity.
- Take other adverse action against you based on whether you have joined or support the union.

If you and your coworkers select a union to act as your collective bargaining representative, your employer and the union are required to bargain in good faith in a genuine effort to reach a written, binding agreement setting your terms and conditions of employment. The union is required to fairly represent you in bargaining and enforcing the agreement.

You can also contact the NLRB by calling toll-free: 1-844-782-NLRB (6672). Language assistance is available. Hearing impaired callers who wish to speak to an NLRB representative should send an email to relay.service@nlrb.gov. An NLRB representative will email the requester with instructions on how to schedule a relay service call.

Threaten to close your workplace if workers choose a union to represent them.

Promote or grant promotions, pay raises, or other benefits to discourage or encourage union support.

Prohibit you from wearing union hats, buttons, t-shirts, and pins in the workplace except under special circumstances.

Spy on or videotape peaceful union activities and gatherings or pretend to do so.

*The National Labor Relations Act covers most private-sector employees. Excluded from coverage under the NLRA are public-sector employees, agricultural and domestic workers, independent contractors, workers employed by a parent or spouse, employees of air and rail carriers covered by the Railway Labor Act, and supervisors (although supervisors that have been discriminated against for refusing to violate the NLRA may be covered).

This is an official Government Notice and must not be defaced by anyone.

WORKER RIGHTS UNDER EXECUTIVE ORDER 14026

FEDERAL MINIMUM WAGE FOR CONTRACTORS

$17.75 PER HOUR EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2025 - DECEMBER 31, 2025

The law requires certain federal contractors to display this poster where employees can easily see it.

Executive Order (EO) 14026 requires that federal contractors pay workers performing work on or in connection with covered contracts at least $17.75 per hour beginning January 30, 2022, and $2 beginning January 1, 2023, and every year thereafter, an inflation-adjusted amount determined by the Secretary of Labor in accordance with EO 14026 and applicable regulations. The EO 14026 minimum wage is in effect from January 1, 2025 through December 31, 2025 at $17.75 per hour.

TIP CREDIT
Contractors may not credit employees tips toward the EO 14026 minimum wage. Similar to other workers paid by EO 14026, tipped employees must be paid a cash wage of at least $17.75 per hour, effective January 1, 2025, through December 31, 2025.

EXCLUSIONS
• The EO 14026 minimum wage may not apply to some workers who provide support "in connection with" covered contracts for less than 20 percent of their hours worked in a week.
• The EO 14026 minimum wage may not apply to certain other occupations and workers.

ENFORCEMENT
The U.S. Department of Labor's Wage and Hour Division (WHD) is responsible for enforcing this law. WHD can answer questions about your workplace rights and protections, investigate employees and recover back wages. All WHD services are free and confidential. Employees can contact WHD online at www.dhs.gov/whd or by calling toll-free 1-866-468-6243 (TDD) or 1-866-468-6243 (voice). Do not use workers about their immigration status. We can help.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
EO 14026 only applies to certain federal construction and service contracts that were renewed, extended, entered into on or after January 30, 2022. Contracts that were awarded between January 1, 2015 and January 29, 2022, that were not renewed or extended on or after January 30, 2022, and March 30, 2022, may be subject to EO 13658, which provides a lower minimum wage requirement than EO 14026. More information about the difference between EO 14026 and EO 13658 is available at www.dhs.gov/whd/government-contractors/14026/13658-by-side.

• Workers with disabilities whose wages are governed by special certificates issued under section 14(c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act must receive no less than the full minimum wage rate under EO 14026 for time spent performing work in connection with covered contracts.
• Some state or local laws may provide greater worker protections; employees must follow the law that requires the highest rate of pay.
